COACH ARSENAULT PREPARES ICEMAN FOR SEASON,
1st CONCORDIA INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT ANNOUNCED

Head Coach Paul Arsenault has trimmed the Concordia Varsity Roster to 26 players from an original list of 55 following a month of training and two games against a Loyola Grads squad. At the same time Arsenault named the teams for the Concordia Invitational Tournament to be held January 16th and 17th.

The Invitational Tournament will feature some of the best college talent in North America. Joining the highly touted Concordia squad will be the University of Waterloo, C.I.A.U. champions in 1974 and runner-ups to the Toronto Blues in 1975; the Trois-Rivieres Patriotes, ranked number one in Canada for three weeks last season; and the St. Lawrence Larries, a strong Division I club in the E.C.A.C. The championship game of the tournament is scheduled to be televised nationally by the C.B.C.

Arsenault's present roster includes 18 lettermen, two All-Canadians, and five former pros. Two of the 26, Glen Cickello and Dave Boyd, will not be able to play until January.

The icemen play an impressive schedule which includes the Toronto Invitational Tournament, the North Country Thanksgiving Tourney in Potsdam, New York, the Laurentian tournament as well as a Maritime swing later this month.
